

Korea comes alive in Tallahassee!

The Asian Coalition of Tallahassee, in collaboration with the Florida State University Hwa Rang Do Club, Korean Student Association, the Filipino Student Association, the Korean Undergraduate Student Association, Arts Leaders & Managers, and Rossier Productions, Inc.

Present:

Korea in Motion: Traditional Korean Dance and Music"on February 21, 2007 (Wednesday) at 6-8 p.m at the Florida Museum of History, RA Gray Building.

Entrance is free but donations are accepted. The event will feature a Dance and Music Demonstration and Workshop, featuring internationally renowned performers: Dancer, Yoo, Ok-jae and Musician, Shin, Hye-young.*

Professor Ok-jae Yoo , a professor at the Dance Department at Kangwon National University, is the Director and Choreographer of "Ok-jae you Dance Company" which has performed all over the world, including Japan, Taiwan, China, U.S. and France, among others. Her company performed at the opening ceremony of the Asian Winter Olympics in 1999.

Hye-young Shin, a Korean harp expert, has also performed in many countries, inclusive of China, Russia, and Australia. Currently she is a professor at Chuncheon National University of Education and is a member of the Seoul traditional music orchestra.

Contact:

Young Shin

(850) 668-7656

youngshin@hotmail.com

Sung Rim

(850)212-1264

chuncheon@gmail.com