

PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT

Contact: Mafé Brooks (850)345-0978/ mafemrb@hotmail.com
Gail Rossier (850) 224-0372 or (850) 228-3126/execdir@rossierprod.org

May 5, 2006

Rossier Productions, Inc.

PRESENTS: "THE WORLD THAT LIVES HERE" Annual Fundraiser

Sunday, May 21, 2006, 4:00 p.m.

Brokaw-McDougall House, 329 N. Meridian St.

Come and join us for an afternoon of history and heritage at the historic Brokaw-McDougall House. Visit with local authors, artists and educators and learn more about Tallahassee's local and world communities. Savor a variety of appetizers and desserts from local restaurants, and be the first to witness the unveiling of the master plan for "The World That Lives Here", the future History and Heritage Center, the first of its kind in Tallahassee. Be transported to the world of documentary filmmaking with the premier screening of excerpts from RPI's innovative programs such as: "Operation Filmmaker", "Passages to the Presidents, Their Childhood Footsteps", and "The Power of Destiny". This special event is free and open to the public.

Special Guest Speaker: Mayor John Marks

Reception sponsors: Lucy Ho's Oriental Bistro, Far East Cuisine, Luna's Italian Market, Cicada

Musical Performance by: Abs of Steel, Steel Drum Band

Event Schedule:

4:00 p.m. Cultural Exhibits, Author signing, Vendors & Reception

5:15 p.m. Opening Program with Welcome Remarks by Mayor John Marks

Screening of RPI initiatives and the unveiling of "The World That Lives Here, the future History and Heritage Center.

For sponsorship and exhibitor information, please contact Mafé Brooks at mafemrb@hotmail.com

Rossier Productions, Inc. (RPI), a local non-profit organization, is proud to present, "The World That Lives Here," its first annual fundraising event that celebrates history and heritage.

For more information about RPI, please visit the website at www.rossierprod.org.